

Delia R. Flores

is a Foreign Trade Businesswoman specialized in Customs Offices, Logistics and international transport of land cargoes in Argentina and Brazil. She speaks English and Portuguese and is an active member of several Business Chambers in Argentina and Brazil. In 2009, she founded GEMA - Grupo Empresarial de Mujeres Argentinas - and is currently its President. GEMA is a Civil, National and Federal Association with headquarters in several Provinces of the Country and alliances with the exterior.

She has participated in congresses, fairs and trade missions in Russia, South Africa, Central America, Peru, Spain, Scotland, France, Brazil.

Delia Flores has worked as lecturer in International Congresses of Women Entrepreneurs. Czech Republic, Brazil, Peru and Bolivia.

She is the co-author of the book "O Caminho do Sucesso": Success Stories, told in first person, invited by the Brazilian Organization of Business Women OBME, and presented in Sao Paulo and participated in CSW 60 and CSW 61 at UN Women New York.